

Jeffry J. Tejada, PhD

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR

EDUCATION

PhD in Statistics (2008)

PhD in Economics (Ongoing)

TEACHING

Doctorate and Masters courses on theoretical and applied statistics.

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Mathematical Statistics, Analytics and Data Mining, Econometrics, Business Intelligence, Predictive Analysis and Forecasting, Computational Statistics

RECENT CONSULTANCIES AND TRAININGS

Asian Development Bank

Health Policy Development Program (funded by USAID)

Bank of the Philippine Islands

United Nations Food and Agricultural Organization (for the Bureau of Agricultural Statistics)

SAS Institute Philippines

Philippine Institute for Development Studies (for the Commission on Higher Education)

Telkomsel Corporation (Jakarta, Indonesia)

IQR Consulting, Incorporated

World Health Organization (for the Philippine Health Insurance Corporation)

PUBLICATIONS

Tejada, J., Punzalan, J., 2012, On the Misuse of Slovin's Formula, The Philippine Statistician, 61(1): 129-136 (Teacher's Corner).

J. Tejada, 2010, The Random Component of the Levy Fractional Brownian Motion: A Rotation-Scale-Reflection-Invariant Random Field, The Philippine Statistician, 59: 89-93.

Tejada, J. (2009), Trend and Random Components of the Levy Fractional Brownian Motion, Proceedings of the 57th Session of the International Statistical Institute, Durban: International Statistical Institute.

Tejada, J. (2007), Spectral Representation of the Covariance Function of a Rotation-Scale-Reflection-Invariant Random Field, The Philippine Statistician, 56: 73-84.