

UPSS elected to the PSAI Board for the CY 2017-2019

Last December 2, 2016, the Philippine Statistical Association, Inc. (PSAI) conducted its 2016 Annual Meeting and Christmas at the new UP School of Statistics building, UP Diliman. During the said event, the UP School of Statistics emerged as the top choice to represent the Institutional Members to the Board of Directors (BOD). The UPSS will serve in the PSAI BOD for the Calendar Years (CY) 2017 to 2019.

Furthermore, three individual members were also elected to the BOD for CY 2017-2019 namely, Ms. Evelyn R. Santos (former Deputy Director of the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas (BSP), Dr. Vicente B. Valdepeñas, Jr. (former Monetary Board Member of the BSP) and Mr. Tomas P. Africa (former Administrator of the National Statistics Office).

Also, recognition were given to UPSS Professor and former Dean Dr. Ana Maria L. Tabunda and Philippine Statistics Authority (PSA) Deputy National Statistician Romeo S. Recide. They both received the Outstanding Service Awards from the PSAI for their exceptional contributions to the association.

The PSAI is the Philippines' sole scientific society of professionals committed to the promotion of the proper use of statistics. UPSS Dean and Professor Dr. Dennis S. Mapa is currently the President of the PSAI.
