

UP School of Statistics Class of 2017!

Attending the 106th University Commencement on a bright morning of June 25, 2017, 135 UPSS Graduates marked the end of their journeys in the university. The UPSS Class of 2017 was led by two Summa Cum Laude graduates, Paolo Deo Reyes and Teod Carlo Cabili. Reyes and Cabili were joined by 11 Magna Cum Laude and 23 Cum Laude graduates.

The School also recorded the most number of graduates in the history of its Graduate Program. There were a total of 27 graduates: 14 Master of Statistics, 12 Master of Science in Statistics and 1 Doctor of Philosophy in Statistics.

Among the School's graduates are the ASEAN Scholars under the European Commission's EU-ASEAN COMPASS Program. The six scholars who all finished Master in Statistics are the following:

- Lwin Aye Aye (Myanmar)
- Myint Ohn Mar (Myanmar)
- Navongsa Sypaseut (Laos)
- Norasane Somsamay (Laos)
- So Sovannachakriya (Cambodia)
- Veun Thy (Cambodia)

UPSS is committed to continue the advancement of Statistics in the country and in South-East Asian Region by having top caliber faculty members and researchers, and producing outstanding students in various fields of study.